Opportunity

The Opportunity for Clubs

Private clubs are increasingly expected to deliver premium, experience-driven programming beyond the club itself.

Frequent Travelers

Club members often seek exclusive travel opportunities that combine their interests with luxury and comfort, making curated trips highly appealing.

Passionate Pickleball Players

Members who regularly play pickleball are eager to engage in destination experiences that center around their favorite sport in premium settings.

Wellness and Lifestyle Focus

A strong emphasis on wellness and balanced living among members drives demand for experiences that integrate health, relaxation, and activity.

Social Experience Seekers

Members value meaningful social connections and shared experiences that foster community beyond the club environment.

Experience

The Experience Model

Integrated Five Elements

Each Luxury Pickle Travel experience weaves together Play (pickleball activities), Stay (premium accommodations), and Taste (local culinary delights) for a balanced journey.

This integrated model allows clubs to offer a complete lifestyle experience without building or managing it internally.

Explore and Connect

Guests engage in destination exploration and meaningful social connections, creating memorable moments beyond the game.

Wellness

Wellness as a Core Element

Integrated wellness and recovery programming designed to complement active play and enhance the overall member experience — including mobility, relaxation, and optional personalized sessions.

Partnership

Partnership Model

Co-Branded Experience

Luxury Pickle Travel creates exclusive, co-branded travel experiences that reflect the club's identity and values, enhancing member appeal and trust.

Club Introduces Members

The club facilitates member engagement by introducing the curated travel offerings directly to their community, leveraging existing member relationships.

LPT Manages Experience and Booking

Luxury Pickle Travel handles all operational aspects including communication, reservations, and on-site coordination, ensuring a seamless and premium member journey.

Minimal operational burden for the club.

Example Flow

01

Club Introduces Members

The club shares the Luxury Pickle Travel opportunity with its members through direct communication channels and events to generate awareness.

- Member invitation email
- Club announcement
- Informational materials

02

Members Express Interest

Interested members respond and register their interest, enabling the club and LPT to gauge potential participation and tailor communications.

- Interest forms
- RSVP tracking
- Member feedback

03

LPT Manages Communication

Luxury Pickle Travel takes over ongoing communication, providing detailed trip information, answering questions, and keeping members engaged.

- Regular updates
- FAQs
- Personalized responses

04

Guests Book Experience

Members complete the booking process through a streamlined platform managed by LPT, ensuring a smooth and fully supported reservation.

- Booking confirmations
- Payment processing
- Travel documentation

05

Trip Executed Seamlessly

The trip is delivered as planned with on-site coordination, ensuring a premium, stress-free experience from arrival to departure.

- On-site support
- Itinerary management
- Guest satisfaction follow-up

Why This Works

Aligned with Member Interests

Experiences combine pickleball, wellness, and lifestyle elements that reflect what your members already value and actively seek.
